Superior Ave. Nate's Natures Table, a collaboration with the Cleveland Museum of Natural History, is a one-of-a-kind, shop-style garden that provides plants to its visitors. Each spring, a beautiful new garden is constructed, and those plants are for sale to the public. The projects are designed to be as unique as the people who visit them, and the gardens have a theme. This year's garden is inspired by the true story of man's search to uncover the secrets of life and of death, the discovery of Darwin's theory of evolution and the birth of microbiology. The City of Cleveland will celebrate the 150th anniversary of Charles Darwin's birth. This July and August, visitors to the garden can enjoy their own private garden for free with a CMA membership. The CMA will recognize members
