The quest for a beautiful princess -- a real-life princess-that's what everyone imagines when they fantasize about fantasy, a lovely fairy or white maiden or a kind, sweet princess that would appear one day and marry them. Women have always been drawn to fantasy and in this new fantasy novel, Matt and Sally are both part of the fantasy, and equally baffled by what is happening in their relationship. A princess? Sally's the daughter of a selfish and underhanded doctor, and she's never known anything but money and good looks. But Matt, a good-looking, athletic, very successful computer programmer, has a secret fantasy about Sally -- he wants to find a real princess to fall in love with. A princess who will fall in love with him. Who just might be Sally. But, is Sally the real princess or is she the dream? Matt can't take Sally to the real-life princesses, because, well, they don't fall in love with him. But he really wants them to fall in love with Sally. The truth is, Matt has one secret desire, the one that he's been hiding from Sally: that he wants to d0c515b9f4
