Closet Organization Can Save You Hours The kitchen sink is often the most-used area in the average home, and if you don't have enough room to store your dishes and catch up on laundry, you may need to make room! Closets are fantastic organizing solutions for much more than just storage. In fact, closet organization can help you save the most important items in your home—you'll have more space for everything. If you want to get organized, here are the five closet organization tips to get started. 1. Make the most of space! Make sure to go through your closet once a year and re-evaluate what you have, what you're missing and what you want to add. It's important to take a critical eye at everything inside your closet, as it will help you decide what to keep and what to get rid of. We're not suggesting that you trash all your old clothes, but we do suggest that you go through your closet and look for items that you no longer wear or use. Do you really need to have an entire drawer of black clothing? (Just a few pieces are needed.) Do you need 10 pairs of sneakers? 2. Start small and move up 595f342e71
